IF WE VOTE 'YES' IN THE PLEBICITE:

1 Loss of freedom of speech.

Already we live in a climate of intimidation where civil debate is impossible. Those who support traditional marriage are targeted if they speak up, like Hobart Archbishop Julian Porteous was.

2 Loss of freedom of religion

This will effect what faith leaders will be able to preach, what schools will be able to teach, and how everyday Australians will be able to conduct their businesses in accordance with their beliefs.

3 Parents won't be able to oppose the radical sex education program 'Safe Schools'

If marriage is redefined, there are consequential changes in education programs and policies in schools, and parents are increasingly excluded from having a say in the same sex education of their children.

IF WE VOTE 'NO' IN THE PLEBICITE:

1 We send a strong message on family, faith and freedom.

2 Parents can contribute to teach their children about their own beliefs about gender, sexuality and marriage.

3 We win the right to civil debate where political correctness has previously intimidated many into silence.
